Allowable subject matter

Claims 1-13 are allowed.

The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance:

The prior arts neither disclose nor suggest the following limitations, in combination with the remaining elements as disclosed in claims 1, 12, 13:

- The primary the secondary driving circuits provides power to drive the primary and the secondary light tubes, respectively, photoelectric currents of the photosensitive elements alter according to the respective brightness of the primary and the second light tubes, the primary feedback circuit receives the photoelectric current of a single corresponding photosensitive element and provides an output signal to the primary driving circuit, and the secondary feedback circuit receives at least two photoelectric currents of the photosensitive elements and provides at least an output signal to the secondary driving circuit in order to keep the brightness of the secondary light tube the same as the brightness of the primary light tube such as required by claim 1.
- One secondary sub-system including a secondary driving circuit, a second light tube, a secondary photosensitive element and a secondary feedback circuit connected in series, wherein the primary photosensitive element is further linked to the secondary feedback circuit, the primary feedback circuit being configured so as to solely influenced by the primary photosensitive element such as required by claim 12.

Art Unit: 2821

- One secondary sub-system including a secondary driving circuit, a secondary light tube, a secondary photosensitive element and a secondary feedback circuit connected in series, wherein the primary sub-system and the secondary sub-system are mainly separate from each other except the secondary feedback circuit is also influenced by the primary sub-system for obtaining consistent illumination between the primary sub-system and the secondary sub-system, the primary feedback circuit being configured so as to be solely influenced by the primary photosensitive element such as required by claim 13.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
